

"As a long time colleague Michael has time and time again provided me with fresh insights and new approaches to the various dilemmas I have faced as a composer, pianist, and teacher. He is always insightful, meticulous, and draws from an exceptionally broad palette of musical knowledge and experience in addressing each area of concern. Not to be understated is the fully supportive and inspirational working environment he has created in his personal studio. Michael is a teacher of unsurpassed skill and dedication."

-- Jeffrey Gaeto (veteran arranger and film composer, pianist, and teacher)