

"Michael Smolens' JAZZ CLASS was so valuable to me as a musician and as a guitarist. The method for learning tunes really gets them in your body and I was constantly challenged to step out of my comfort zone as a player. The studio environment is also supportive and constructive. I'd recommend this class to anybody looking to get into improvisation, or to take their musicianship to another level."

-Dee Ouellette, guitarist